The sum of Box B + Box C must equal the expense limit in Box A.

If either the candidate or the elector organization becomes aware that they have exceeded, or will exceed, the expense limit available to them, they must notify the other party as soon as practicable. In order to avoid potential penalties, they must also file an amended Campaign Financing Arrangement to adjust their available expense limit.

PART E: REQUIRED NOTIFICATIONS

The candidate must deliver a copy of this form, and any amendments, to the financial agent of the elector organization and Elections BC as soon as practicable.

This campaign financing arrangement can be amended at any time on or before General Voting Day. After General Voting Day, the amount available to the candidate and the elector organization cannot be amended.

If a candidate or elector organization would like to terminate a Campaign Financing Arrangement, they must file a Notification of Termination of a Campaign Financing Arrangement form before the start of the campaign period for the election.

I am aware of:

- (a) the disclosure requirements in section 49(3) of the Local Elections Campaign Financing Act,
- (b) the penalties in section 65.1 of the Local Elections Campaign Financing Act that may apply to me if the elector organization fails to meet its disclosure requirements or files false or misleading information, and
- (c) the penalties in sections 68.01 and 68.02 of the Local Elections Campaign Financing Act that may apply if the candidate or elector organization exceeds the expense limit and amount available to them under this arrangement.
