An initial disclosure report must be filed within 14 days of a third party sponsor sponsoring election advertising with a total value greater than $10,000.

The initial disclosure report must include all contributors who made sponsorship contributions with a total value greater than $250 since the most recent general election that have not been previously disclosed to Elections BC in a prior election advertising disclosure report.

For certainty, the initial disclosure report must be filed, even if there are no contributions to report.

This initial disclosure report includes:

Sponsorship Contributions with a Total Value Greater than $250	Form S-A(b)	<input type="checkbox"/>
OR
No contributors made sponsorship contributions with a total value greater than $250.		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

I, the undersigned, declare that:

(a) this report and appropriate forms have been prepared in accordance with the Election Act; and

(b) to the best of my knowledge, information and belief, all the information contained in this report is complete and accurate.

I am aware that a subsequent disclosure report must be filed if any contributors give sponsorship contributions that bring their total to more than $250 since the most recent general election.
